DAIL Y COURIER. WEDNESD 31 MORNING. - - JAN. 29. 1868.

Democracy of Owan, at their county meeting has week, paid a high-compilment to one of our worthy fer actors, flon. Buyd Winchester, in proposing him as a candidate for Presidential Elector in this District. The suggestion is well no doubt meet with a high degree: # davor throughout the entire district, and e sensinity no gentleman more worthy or efficit successful to account the very hon mainly and responsible position. Mr.

when Hon, Heorge Plondeater represented the State in the Federal Senate, a some thirty-five years rgo, before it time of raitroads, he started from Neatless by an up river steamboat, on hway to Washington. The Agelentitus bank having a heavy deposit to make to one of the Pittaburg banks, entrusted the money to his charge.

Heaters twenty-four hours had deapse aome of the specting featersity were making up a little game, and invited the Senator to take a hand, to which, nothing locath, heromenated. The game ran shrift the usual course of such things while the professionals were taking the measure of their intended violitin, and guessing at the usua of his pile. When these points were settled to their autofaction, the bisiness began in cernes!

An overpowering hand was decit to Mr. Ploedeater, upon which he made a small bet; the others passed, with one acception, who "saw him" and was a the MU'LLE FANNY JANAUSCHEK The gratest reing fragedlenne, supported by
